

“Fire without smoke, fire without fog,
Water without mud, land without bog”
(And the streets are paved with marble).

Kilkenny Postmasters

1824	Robert Drought Matthews
1846/7	Langrishe Prim
1848/56	Joseph Hackett
1856/73	Michael Banim
1875/80	John Goslin
1880/93	James Bell
1893/1908	Thomas Brogan
1898/1912	Pierse Lanigan
1912/1932	James Vincent Coyne
1932/1945	Edward James King
1945/1948	John Brennan
1948/53	Patrick Joseph Harnett
1953/1963	Joseph Vincent Kelly
1963/—	John Denis Moylan

1824—The Post Office was in John Street.

1850— “ “ “ Patrick Street, recently vacated by Mr Richard Crotty.

1884— “ “ “ High Street, now Mr Purcell’s (dentist).

1885— “ “ “ Patrick Street. As in 1850, and for some time in The Parade where Inland Revenue office is now.

1891— “ “ “ High Street, present site. (High St. was closed down for repairs, etc.—1957 to 1957. The temporary premises were in No. 1 Patrick Street, next door to McGrath’s hardware shop).